WESPORT: Sports Have No Gender

Final steps

The WESPORT Consortium gathered online for the project's final meeting—a key moment to reflect on progress, evaluate results, and gear up for the final stretch! Partners reviewed the activities implemented so far, approved the Intermediate Evaluation Report, and assessed the impact of the local programmes where trained coaches are already applying ETS activities in their clubs, alongside raising awareness events promoting the core message that Sports Have No Gender. Discussions also focused on the next crucial steps: planning the final conference, enhancing dissemination, and ensuring the project's long-lasting impact with stakeholders across Europe. The project moves forward stronger than ever, driven by a shared commitment to break gender stereotypes and build truly inclusive sports communities!
